

On a Journey

*We know not what the future holds,
God determines our paths on our journey.
May He "fine-tune" our hearts, our voices and the messages that our songs convey,
so that He alone is honored and glorified.*

FOR INFORMATION ON BOOKINGS

PLEASE CALL: 817-734-9624 or 817-498-0723

In his heart
a man
plans his course,
but the Lord determines his steps.

Proverbs 16:9

Glenda Graves

Sings for Him . . . look up and lift up your heads for your redemption draweth nigh.

Luke 21:28

Glenda is a Southern Gospel soloist who sings songs that "speak to the heart". Her family history is not that of a Christian home, but rather of a very decadent heritage. But God provided a way of escape by giving Glenda the gift of evangelism through His songs. She shares some of her testimony with you during her concerts. Glenda would love to come sing for your revival, church service, benefit, anniversary service, homecoming, retirement facility, nursing home or for any other special occasion. There is never a fee as she knows the Lord will continue to meet her needs as she remains in His service for His glory. Love offerings to keep this ministry going are always welcome.

Noral Gregory

When Noral Gregory was about three years old, he sang in church "Brighten the Corner/Let the Sun Shine In".

He received the Lord Jesus Christ as his Savior when he was eight years old. As a teenager he dedicated his life and talent in song evangelism.

During high school and college years, he sang in chorus, quartet and solo competitions and concerts. He participated in voice classes and individual voice lessons. Noral attended the Rodeheaver School of Sacred Music at Winona Lake, Indiana, five summers. His favorite class taught by Homer Rodeheaver was Solo Gospel Interpretation.

God opened the doors for Song Evangelism Ministry in Southern Indiana in various churches. These included Baptist, Methodist, Nazarene, Presbyterian, and United Brethren.

Serving in The United States Air Force brought him to Fort Worth, Texas. He has served as music minister in these churches: Fort Worth Bible Church; Arlington Bible Church; Dallas Grace Fellowship; Fort Worth Congregational Methodist. He occasionally serves as Music Minister at Christ-Life Fellowship in Dallas.

He sings in The Barbershop Harmony Singing Society and has done so the past 27 years in Arlington and Fort Worth.

His desire is to encourage the family of God through gospel singing. Ephesians 5:18,19

"...be filled with the Spirit, speaking to one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody in your heart to the Lord."

Dolores Hunt

Music has always been a huge part of my life. I was told that I started singing as soon as I could talk. At the age of nine, I accepted the sacrifice that Jesus made to cover my sins and I received the salvation He so freely offers! Soon after I was saved I knew that the musical talent that I had was all from God and that He wanted me to use it in His service. I was His little "soldier" called to duty. I sang in a trio with my mother and sister in church, and at the age of eleven became the pianist for the church. God was preparing me for my future life as a minister's wife.

God blessed my husband Harmon and me with three wonderful children – two daughters, Debbi and Kathy, and a son, Scott. God also gave them musical talent. Early in their lives, I taught them to sing, and soon they were singing with me everywhere their dad preached. We became known as The Hunt Family, singing in several states across the USA. During those years we recorded two albums.

As each of the children grew up, left home and started their own families, there were fewer times that we were able to sing together as "The Hunt Family." So, still feeling God's call upon my life to use the musical talent that He gave me, I started singing solo, not only in the church my husband pastored, but in concerts and other areas of ministry as God opened the doors of opportunity.

Whether it's playing the piano for a church service, singing with a group or being used as a soloist, I want to be a tool in the hand of God to spread the Gospel wherever God wants me to go, bringing the good news of salvation to those who are lost, comfort to those who are hurting, and joy to the children of God.

Sylvia McKeown

From the beginning, Sylvia McKeown's life has been centered around music. She was raised in a Christian family who were all musically inclined. She began studying voice and singing solos in grade school and continued through high school and college. She sang with her three brothers in a quartet in their church. Sylvia was saved and baptised at age nine, she has used her God given talents to praise Him in many ways. She attended two years of college at the University of Corpus Christi where she studied for a double major of voice and drama. She performed in many dramas, sang with the college choir and toured with the college ensemble. Sylvia has been the featured soloist in choirs of Baptist churches throughout Texas. She performed as Mother Abbess in the dramatic presentation of The Sound of Music two consecutive years at the First Baptist Church of Plano, Texas. After marriage, Sylvia began her occupation in the newspaper field and in graphic arts. She has owned a Graphic Arts business since 1985. She is married to a wonderful man, Curtis, who loves God and appreciates gospel music as much as she does. She has four children and nine precious grandchildren. Christ is the center of her life and she will continue to use her voice for His Glory and remain in His service as long as He will use her.

